September/October 2023

“The second vintage of Bravium’s Blanc de Noirs is again composed entirely from pinot noir, with the vins clairs barrel-fermented and given an extended élevage of ten months prior to bottling up for secondary fermentation. The wine has a gentle shading of salmon to its color this year and offers up a refined bouquet of white peach, bread dough, a lovely base of soil, dried flowers and a whisper of the smokiness to come in the upper register. On the palate the wine is bright, full-bodied, focused and complex, with elegant mousse, lovely balance and grip and a long, vibrant and very elegant finish. Fine juice.”
